

Who Are We?

You probably received this from someone who distributes these booklets to members of the public on the streets. We are a small group of friends who live together and share everything we own in a common purse.

None of us works for money, and we do not accept unemployment benefits. We are scattered very loosely over five different continents.

Our ideas come from the teachings of Jesus, but we are generally hated by the institutional church for our radical beliefs and lifestyle. So please do not assume too much about who we are on the basis of us saying that we follow Jesus. We definitely do NOT follow institutional “churchianity”.

Other than that, you can learn more about us just by reading the articles in this booklet, and by viewing the videos that are linked to QR codes throughout the book. They include music, humour, a cartoon, a documentary, and several discourses on various aspects of our beliefs.

Below is a link to a 45-minute documentary on us. You may even recognise the person who gave you this booklet in the video as you watch it!

At the end of this booklet is a crossword puzzle to test your knowledge of what you have read in the various articles. The answers for that crossword also appear below.

QUIT YOUR JOB FOREVER!

CHRISTIAN FREEGANISM

WHAT IF I WAS TO TELL YOU THAT YOU COULD QUIT YOUR JOB AND DO WHATEVER YOU LIKE, AND STILL SURVIVE? WHAT IF I WAS TO FURTHER TELL YOU THAT IT WOULD ACTUALLY SOLVE MANY OF THE WORLD'S BIGGEST PROBLEMS?

WHEN YOU UNDERSTAND THE PRINCIPLES OF "CHRISTIAN FREEGANISM", THAT IS EXACTLY WHAT YOU WILL BE ABLE TO DO.

Most of the problems in the world are caused by people doing things they don't really want to do. And we do them because we think we will starve or freeze to death if we do NOT do them.

If we stop worrying about starving, and concentrate on what brings satisfaction, we will work harder and be more productive.

Let's call it "plurking". Plurking is a combination of playing and working. Everywhere people slave away all week long, just hanging out for the weekend, when they can do what they really want to do, even though they could be plurking instead.

Because people are so screwed up in their thinking at work all week, most weekends are wasted trying to drown out the dissatisfaction.

We never get around to discovering what brings real happiness. But if we made satisfaction our full time goal (instead of getting money), eventually we would discover that real contentment comes from doing things that are helpful... helpful for ourselves, but also helpful for others.

We might even discover that many of the same things that we hated about our jobs, can become part of an adventure, but only when we leave money out of the picture.

That's the main difference between playing and working. People do dangerous things, difficult things, boring things, even really repulsive things as hobbies, when they are not being paid for it. But if they bring money into the picture, they soon start hating what they previously enjoyed.

The obvious questions you are now asking are these: “If I stopped working for money, How would I pay the rent; How would I fix my car; and How would I put food on the table?”

But consider this: If everyone was doing what they do now, but not for money, we would have all the good things we now have... and more.

And it would work even more efficiently if people readjusted what they did, according to what they enjoy doing. People work much harder when they enjoy what they are doing.

Watch
What if Every- one Did It?
(Follow Jesus
the Way We Should)

Some people would farm just because they love farming. Some would band together and build roads... really nice roads, just because they love building roads and love being useful. People would even do really disgusting work, like cleaning out sewers or changing babies’ nappies, just because they know that they are making other people happy or healthy by doing it. All the emphasis would be on being helpful.

But, of course, we are NOT going to get the whole world to live that way... at least not in our lifetime. And that is where the concept of “freeganism” comes in.

While the rest of society continues to chase after the almighty dollar...

... a big part of our new adventurous life is just discovering how much we can do for free... right now... and without others having to think like we do before we can experience it for ourselves.

Take food, for example. It is one of the most fundamental concerns anyone could have, the moment anyone talks about not having money.

But look around. In most Western countries, we over-consume to begin with.

On top of that, we throw out enough perfectly good food to feed a large proportion of our population. This tendency to waste on a grand scale is just one more consequence of our underlying fear of starving, and the dissatisfaction it breeds in all of us.

Freegans are most famous for something called “dumpster diving”, where we check out the dumpsters behind supermarkets.

We find many of them overflowing with packaged food that has been taken off the shelves to make room for fresher stock. Much of the stuff in the dumpsters is not even out of date yet.

But doing things for free goes beyond finding free food.

We can make our own entertainment (and enhance relationships at the same time) by playing more games and developing our own talents as entertainers. We can find free ways to travel, and especially find free ways to help others.

When we start to discover true satisfaction in “helping others”, we have identified a vital key to making others want to do it too.

At the moment, others envy us. We get to play while they have to work. Some of them get angry. That’s understandable. But when we help them in little practical ways, it can ease the anger, and show them that life is not all about selfish indulgence at the end of a miserable week. Life for human beings was always meant to be like this. We were made to help others.

And what better way to help others than to do what I just did when I gave you this booklet? I’m showing you how you could become part of such a great way of life too.

Oh yeah, and before I end this article, let me address the word “Christian”, which appears in the title. See, I got the idea from Jesus Christ. Not the Jesus of the churches, but the real Jesus, in the Bible. He and his disciples lived like that. They called it “living by faith”.

Jesus said, “Look at the birds! They don’t farm or make clothes, and yet God feeds them. Look at the flowers! Even Solomon, with all his wealth, was not clothed so beautifully as God has clothed the flowers.”

Faith in God means that we can have the assurance that, when things do NOT go the way we want them to go, it is still going to turn into something good in the long run. Even if we should die doing what will help others, there is an eternal reward at the end of it all.

Please think about what I have just said, and imagine how it could make your life more fruitful if you lived this way too.

WHEN CASHLESS MEANS MONEYLESS

ALMOST 50 YEARS AGO, SOME OF US STOPPED WORKING FOR MONEY. WE DECIDED TO USE OUR LIVES TO JUST BE HELPFUL...
TO GO INTO ALL THE WORLD
PREACHING THIS EXCITING LIFE OF CHRISTIAN MINIMALISM.

Over those 50 years, we continued to use money, if it was freely given to us. This was our 'interface' with the rest of society.

But a time is coming when there won't be any money available. Either we will succumb to the cashless society by getting ourselves micro-chipped, or we will cease to exist in the eyes of the system. That could be a very bleak future.

Without electronic money, we won't be able to buy a cup of coffee. We won't be able to give a dollar to a beggar, rent a house, put fuel in our car, board a bus, or pick up a shirt at the local second-hand store. It will be too late to turn property into cash by selling it, because there will be no cash. Out of gas or not, we will not be able to sell the car to get food or shelter either.

This is not some weird prophecy about an imaginary dystopia. This is today... right now. It's not universal yet, but more and more people are running out of cash, and more and more outlets are refusing to accept cash. Banks are making it harder to do transactions with real money. Governments are locking into the new system. Merchants are being forced to comply as well.

As Christians, we have been told in scripture that, when the world reaches this stage in its devolution, it will be the ultimate sin, in the eyes of our Creator, to accept that final implant in our hand, even though it may seem to be our only means of survival.

This switchover to microchips will trigger the final battle between good and evil... between God and mammon... and we are each going to be forced to make an eternal choice about who has ultimate claim on our soul.

Either we will refuse to accept that mark and suffer the consequences, or we will incur the unbridled wrath of our Creator.

Watch
The Mark of the Beast

Money did not make the world. A loving, incomprehensible Being made it, and he made it all for our enjoyment.

But what have we done with it? We have thumbed our noses at our Creator, and given our lives in service for money instead. We created false religions to justify it all, as we slaughtered each other in one war after another. We became addicted to more and more useless junk, in our race to destroy the environment.

Watch
God's Garden: Mysteries of the Universe Explained!

And all in the name of a monster called “the economy”; in defence of slavery called our “jobs”; and in service to trinkets we call “money”.

Money has gone through many stages of development...

From barter, where you trade one commodity for another, to beads and shells and bits of metal we call coins, to paper currency, to cheques and stocks and bonds, and now to electronic impulses, which can be triggered by a little microchip that we already hold in our hands each time we do a scanned transaction.

One day soon, that microchip will be implanted in the bodies of everyone on Earth. It can be done in record time, when the forces behind it are ready to move... faster than you could vaccinate everyone. People will line up for miles to get it. Such convenience! Such security! Such addictive compliance!

With the help of quantum computers, a global identification system, and a powerful over-reaching world government, the planet will be ready for a totally new 'world order'.

Watch
Artificial Intelligence and the Mark of the Beast!

But we won't take it.

Despite our opposition to the monetary system in the past, people often gave us money, and we used it. But what is coming represents a whole new ballgame spiritually. Even just using that last manifestation of the god of this world will be totally over the line for all who believe in a higher Power like we do.

We cannot, and will not, participate. We will refuse to accept the microchip implant, even if it means starvation, or freezing to death.

We will resist because we believe it is fundamentally flawed, invented by the forces of evil that rule the world... forces that are diabolically opposed to worship and service of the Creator of life and all that goes with it.

The gauntlet is being thrown down even now, and it is up to each one of us to decide whether we are going to resist or whether we are going to cave in... to conformity, to comfort, and to security.

We choose to die fighting for the truth, for love, and for faith in an almighty and loving Creator.

A FLOOD OF LIES TO DISTRACT US

RIGHT NOW, WHEN THE WORLD NEEDS FOCUS, UNITY, AND COMMITMENT TO TRUTH MORE THAN
AT ANY OTHER TIME IN HISTORY, WE ARE BEING OVERWHELMED WITH AN UNIMAGINABLE FLOOD OF
THE MOST BIZARRE AND UNBELIEVABLE LIES THAT THE WORLD HAS EVER HEARD.

These lies exist for the specific purpose of distracting us from what is REALLY happening in the world around us.

But first, let's look at how they work.

Think of the most totally ridiculous and incredible lie that you can imagine, and then go on the Internet with it.

Faithfully promote it through social media, and I guarantee that you will find believers by the thousands, possibly even by the millions. Almost overnight they will join you in droves, armed with their own evidence for whatever it is that you want to say... as long as it is a lie. The bigger it is, the more they will be drawn to it.

I hardly dare to cite illustrations of the long list of lies that are circling the globe at the moment, because they are growing so quickly that many of you reading this booklet right now probably believe some of them. It would scare many of you away, if you heard some of your most treasured and new-found beliefs being challenged here and now, before you have read the rest of what I have to say.

While lies abound, the truths contained in this booklet have been denied for centuries. We ourselves have scoured the world for almost fifty years loudly proclaiming our message, and yet the media, governments, churches, and the general public stick their fingers in their ears and their heads in the sand to all that we have to say. They do all they can to ignore us, or to put us down. It has been happening to others like us as well, for centuries.

Someone once said, "A lie can circle the globe before Truth can even get its pants on in the morning."

People are ready to believe anything but the truth, and that includes lies about those who are spreading the truth. They do it because the truth is often uncomfortable. People WANT to believe whatever mud is slung, because then, they think, it will exempt them from the need to act on what the truth-tellers are saying.

But, when you start believing such lies, sooner or later you will be left with the ashes that they represent... the shame of unfulfilled predictions... the emptiness of something that you sub-consciously knew was not true from the day you first heard it.

Such lies do not fulfill the needs of our damaged souls. They only generate more hate and more fear and more delusions about the so-called research behind them.

Have the courage to walk away from all of that today, and to reach out for real truth and real life, with real people, who know where the world is really heading. Please contact us if you would like to be part of this tiny army of truth that is slowly coming together for the final showdown between good and evil.

THE ANSWER TO GLOBAL WARMING

BACK IN 2019, THERE WAS A LOT OF INTEREST IN, AND SERIOUS CONCERN ABOUT, CLIMATE CHANGE.
WE WERE RAPIDLY DESTROYING THE PLANET THROUGH CARBON EMISSIONS FROM FACTORIES, CARS, AND PLANES, AND THROUGH METHANE EMISSIONS FROM FARM ANIMALS.

But then along came lockdowns.

Factories shut, and people stayed home, with their cars idle in the driveway. We did it because of a virus that has so far killed a few million people.

Climate change represents a threat that is hundreds of times worse than that... even if it is not so visible.

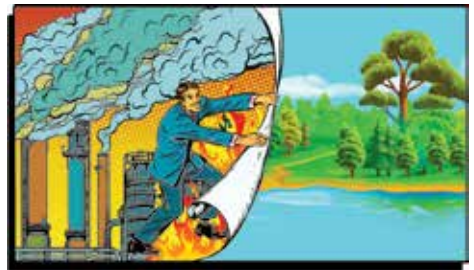

Watch
Deeper Implications
Of Climate Change

Like those people who denied the reality of covid until it struck someone close to them, much of the world today ignores the threat of climate change.

Unfortunately, this threat cannot be avoided so easily. It is so big that we may already be past the “last minute” everyone seems to be waiting for.

Action needs to be taken long before the flooding begins, if it is going to be any help at all.

Governments dragged their feet on making the kind of changes that were needed. Even activists lived in a dream world where they acted like everyone could just buy electric cars and eat veggie-burgers and the problems would be solved.

The answer to climate change is clear. Think of the year 2020. Carbon emissions dropped more dramatically than any government ever thought possible; and it all happened because people saw the more immediate danger of dying from a deadly virus.

We need to stop consuming so much junk as it wastes the world's resources and pollutes the environment at the same time.

We need to stop burning fuel in frenetic, and unnecessary movements from one place to another.

As we have tried to point out in this booklet, the loss-of-jobs argument is groundless.

Ironically, the main thing that makes it so hard to change is also what holds people back from experiencing life in all its fullness. We are so afraid of being without money and all the comforts it can buy, that we resist making the changes that are so necessary to save our planet.

Listen to
From Nothing
(music

Here, at the end of this booklet, we come back to what we said at the start.

True happiness, and the answer to all the problems of the world, will only come when we stop chasing after more and more.

Call it minimalism. Call it freeganism. Call it living by faith. The answer is to ruthlessly apply an axe to the root of all evil.

Even if we cannot get governments and multi-nationals to do the right thing, we can make those changes in our own lives, and they can become beacons of hope for the rest of the world.
